VETERAN PARKER WAS EXPELLED

This Was the Punishment Inflicted for Striking Commander Peay.

Yesterday morning, forty-eight hours after Comrade W. M. Parker, of Petersburg, struck Commandant A. C. Peay, burg, struck Commandant A. C. Peay, of the Soldiers' Home, in the face with his walking stick, an order was read out at the breakfast table, carrying with it the expulsion of Veteran William Parker from the Home.

There was rapt attention in the hall while the paper which made the old soldier an exile was being read, But it was not a great surprise to the veterans and to the public who had been following the case.

Mr. Parker left the Home soon after breakfast.
The Executive Committee sustained Commandant Peay in his course in matter, Colonel John Murphy, a men matter. Coionel John Murphy, a member of the committee, speaks of Commandant Peay's administration in the highest terms, declaring that he is the best officer the Home has had since his connection with the board, a period of about fifteen years. The committee considered charges against Voteran Reese yesterday afformoon, and the decision reached will be communicated to the veterans at breakfast this morning.

MR. KEEZELL BELIEVES HE WILL WIN HIS FIGHT

Senator George B. Keezell, of Rocking ham, was a central figure in Murphy's lobby last night, and was in good spirits concerning his fight for return to the Senate this fell. He was asked by a most cheerful manner that he expected to win.

"Our party is in preity good shape," said the Rockingham leader, "and we have every reason to be hopeful of rebuilts. My running mates are good men, and the convention that named the ticket was harmonious, and for the first time in years every single delegate elected was present in person and took active interest in the proceedings.

"My opponent and I have had one joint discussion, and there will be others, if it is left to me. While we have a fight on our hands, I see no reason to fear defeat, and with the proper work from now on I believe Rockingham will return Democratic representatives to the General Assembly this fall."

Senator Keezell left for his home last night, and will go actively into the can-night, and will go actively into the can-yass upon his return.

At the Academy.

With Miss Percy Haswell as the star, supported by the George Fawcett Company, the most talked of play of recent years, "The Favor of the Queen," will come to the Academy for two performances next Saturday. As a literary production, "The Favor of the Queen' took the highest rank immediately on the occasion of its original presentation, when it was received with a whiriwind of approval, and as a daring play in conception and execution, it has been more written and talked of than any play for many years past. For the first time in this play William Shakespeare is introduced as a character, while the extreme youth of its author, Roy S. Sensabaugh, has been the subject of magazine articles.

DR. EVERETT HERE Democratic Nomines fr m Nelson At-tac's Att nion.

Dr. John C. Everett, Democratic nominee for the House of Delegates from Nelson county, accompanied by Mrs. Everett, is in the city attending the Horse Show, and is stopping at the Hotel Lexington. Dr. Everett has never held a public office, and having several imebefore contested for the honor of a seat in the House, was eagerly sought ov those interested in politics who learned of his presence in the city last night. He is a man of rather distinguished bearing, and is a most companionation gentleman.

Dr. Everett did not care to discuss the political situation in his county for publication, but he is known to be a lad worker, and the impression prevals among those well posted that he will carry the Democratic banner to success this fall.

His opponent, Mr. W. H. Goodwin, the present member, has not been nominated by the Republicans, though he is of that faith, and was in all the conferences of the minority party held here last, winter, Dr. and Miss Everett will remain here trac's Att ntion.

INVESTIGATION IS NOW NEARLY OVER

The Committee of Municipal Investigation has nearly completed its work, and but little interest seems to be manifested in further meetings of the body. So far nothing has developed upon which any one is likely to be convicted of wrong doing, and the bulk of the most damaging testimony is in. The committee now awaits the return of Major M. M. Martip, when it extend in New York on buildings. awaits the return of Major M. M. Martin, who is detained in New York on business, and it is likely that he may oe given a hearing next week. But few more sittings, are expected and then the work of drawing the report will be taken up.

It is expected Chairman John B. Minor will do the bulk of this intricate work, though the findings can be easily discounted, unless some further evidence of a startling nature should develop, which now seems altogether unlikely.
